PROGRAM

DESCRIPTION:

Children are enrolled in classes according to age. Scheduled activities include language arts, large muscle play, music and rhythms, social and natural sciences, math concepts, creative art and dramatics. Activities are designed to arouse children's natural curiosity and allow learning through exploration and experimentation. The daily schedule includes a balance of active and quiet play as well as opportunities for both solitary and group play. Although we allow room for flexibility in the schedule, days are carefully planned to provide a consistency that adds to each child's sense of security.

A Child's Place respects the dignity, worth, uniqueness and potential of each individual. Our goal is to provide a rich learning environment that reflects our belief that children are to be deeply appreciated.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS:

The Pickaway County Office of Ohio State University Extension is an outreach of The Ohio State University. Educational programs include:

4-H Youth Development. Programming focuses on the environment; the economy; family, individual and youth development; and leadership. Our practical educational programs are based on the needs of local citizens and communities, new research results and technical information. Programs in Pickaway County emphasize the development of life skills and leadership skills in youth exploration, relationship enhancement, decisionmaking, and self-esteem.

Agriculture and Natural Resources. Education in areas such as farm business management, efficient livestock and crop production, water quality, conservation of our natural resources, safe management of pesticides and fertilizer, home and urban horticulture and related subjects.

Family & Consumer Sciences. Improving family well-being through education in a variety of areas including parenting, child care, self-esteem, personal development, improving relationships, nutrition, health, weight control, resource management, balancing work and family and stress management. We have many free and inexpensive booklets, offer classes to the community and distribute a free monthly newsletter called "Contemporary Living".

Community Development. Link the county with resources of Ohio State University in areas including economic development, leadership education, water quality, composting, home-based business, land use, and others.

Family Nutrition Program. Helps people with limited resources learn how to use the dietary guidelines and the food guide pyramid; use good meal management and food safety practices; use good shopping strategies to cut costs; use commodity foods and incorporate foods into family meal plans. Contact Elaine Winter, Nutrition Program Assistant, at 474-7534.

PURPOSE: Head Start is a comprehensive program designed to foster the healthy Development of young children from low-income families.

PROGRAMS: Families may choose a schedule based on family need and location of residence in the county.

Part-Day Center-Based Program - A part-day preschool program, operating Monday through Thursday of each week for 3.5 hrs. per day. This program option operates nine months of the year Sept.-May.

Full-Day Full-Year Center-Based Program – enrollment given to families who are working or in school. Enrollment can occur anytime throughout the year provided slots are available. Head Start supports six hours of funding for this program option while state child care subsidies through Job & Family Services and/or parent co-pay fees support the remaining childcare hours. Hours of operation are between 6:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Home Base - option primarily serves children whose families live in the more rural areas of the county where bussing may not be possible due to lengthily route time. This option may also be selected by a family if they feel their child is developmentally not ready for group activities or longer day. A Home Base Teacher and parent(s) plan activities together for the child. Visits by the Teacher are once a week throughout a nine month period. Activities are reviewed weekly with the child and new activities left which the parent(s) initiate between scheduled visits. Transportation is provided once a week by Head Start to a licensed center where children and parents come together for planned social activities.

SERVICES:

Head Start is a Federal program for preschool children primarily for low-income families. Head Start is operated locally by PICCA (Pickaway County Community Action Org. Inc.)

Head Start provides children with a variety of learning experiences.

Head Start offers many opportunities for children to express themselves through art, music, movement, and storytelling. Children participate in indoor and outdoor play, and learn about books, words, numbers, and the world around them. Children are encouraged to communicate their ideas and feelings, and to develop self-confidence and the ability to get along with others. Head Start programs also work with the children and parents to help them make a successful transition to kindergarten or elementary school.

Head Start child receive medical and dental care.

Head Start recognizes the importance of identifying and addressing health problems early in a child's life so that they do not interfere with a child's learning and development. The program arranges comprehensive health care for every child. This includes a complete health examination with a screening for chronic or disabling conditions, a vision and hearing test, a dental checkup, and immunizations. Follow-ups are scheduled for children with any indication of problems.

Head Start responds to children with disabilities.

Special training is provided to Head Start staff to help them work with disabled children. More than 10% of Head Start and Early Head Start children have special needs, and these children are included in all program activities. Head Start staff also work closely with community agencies and other programs for young children with disabilities to ensure that children with special needs obtain the care they need.

Parents are encouraged to become involved in every aspect of Head Start.

Parents and family members work in partnership with Head Start staff to set goals for their child's and family's development. An individualized plan is designed to assist them in achieving their family goals. Parents are encouraged to share their ideas and opinions, to visit the programs, and to participate in Parent Committee and other group activities. Parents can attend classes and workshops to learn about parenting, nutrition, safety practices, preparing for jobs, and many other topics. Parents also have an important voice in program decision-making by serving as elected members of their Head Start program's Policy Council. Head Start programs can help parents obtain educational, literacy, or job training. They also may offer parents opportunities for employment. Many parents serve as volunteer or as aides to Head Start teachers and staff. Some are cooks, storytellers, or play supervisors. When parents are qualified for Head Start jobs, they may receive preference in hiring. (Thirty percent of Head Start Staff are parents of current or former Head Start children.) Staff also helps parents find employment in other fields.

ELIGIBILITY: Enrollment for ages 3-5 years by September 30. Family must meet income guidelines based upon income earned for the past twelve month period. 90% of funded slots are filled with low-income families. The remaining 10% may be filled with families who exceed the poverty guidelines. Foster children are automatically eligible.
